Outstanding School Assemblies

THE HIP-HOP HANDBOOK

Hip-Hop Culture is presented in a Safe, Respectful and Positive format.

The Hip-Hop Handbook provides students of all ages the opportunity to experience and enjoy various forms of urban music and dance expression in a safe, respectful and positive format. Each presentation elaborates on one or more of the many elements of Hip-Hop Culture embodied in the expressions of music, dance, and the visual arts.

Presentations range from large assemblies to small workshops to fit the needs of your school.

History, Music, Dance, Visual Arts

Our large-scale Showcase assemblies can be custom-tailored for Kindergartners through 12th Grade and are include one or more of these elements of Hip Hop: history, music, dance or visual arts. Our smaller, classroom-size workshops provide an opportunity for in-depth study on one of these themes: Break Dance, Hip-Hop Music, or Urban Art. All of our showcase assemblies and workshop tutorials are unique. The overall theme of your session can be customized to fit the needs of your curriculum, including: Anti-Bully, Literacy, Character Development, Red-Ribbon, and much more!
