STREET BEAT

An educational presentation of Rhythm & Percussion—the nuts and bolts of music.

Street Beat uses repurposed house-hold items for percussion instruments, as inspired by the theatrical success “Stomp”. This explosive presentation teaches students the basics of music and inspires them to explore possibilities beyond their wildest dreams.

Watch students open up to and identify with the world of Rhythm.

Students actively participate in all parts of the program. With the guidance of professional musicians, students explore and examine the world of rhythm and sound. In this high-energy presentation, everyday items are transformed into extraordinary, and students discover that each and every thing has possibilities beyond what it normally is.

The Art of Drumming is used as a creative learning tool that addresses life skills and enhances the mind, body and spirit.

We teach, uplift and inspire students of all backgrounds to integrate music-playing into their daily lives. This wonderful percussion celebration is fun, easily accessible for all ages, and it will get students moving!
