Dancing, Juggling, Music, Acrobatics, Slow Motion and High Energy Kung-Faux Fighting

NANDA is a four-man performing arts group characterized by a calculated chaos of dancing, juggling, music, acrobatics, slow motion and high energy kung-faux fighting. It's like watching a circus-ninja-dance-comedy-action-movie, performed live on stage. Their show is all at once exuberantly innovative & widely appealing to audiences of all ages.

Motivate and Inspire Students to follow their dreams. Anything is Possible!

NANDA's performance offers students an insight into the magical world of entertainment as seen through the eyes of childhood friends following their dreams. Kiyota, Tomoki, Chen & Misha met as children in Port Townsend, Washington.

NANDA motivates students to collaborate on projects and share visions. Students are inspired to have fun and follow their dreams. This group leaves behind the powerful message that anything is possible. You don't want to miss the opportunity to bring NANDA to your school.
